ORDER

We are not satisfied with the report submitted by Mr. Akram Ali Khowaja, Spl. Secretary Health Sindh about the causes of death of five infants in the Civil Hospital Mithi, as general reasons have been provided therein. However, he is also present in Court and states that he shall constitute a Committee of the expert doctors so as to provide a detailed finding about the concerned incident(s). Moreover, it has been noticed through the media that five more minor children have died or are in critical condition on account of alleged expired injections given to them. He states that in this matter as well, he has constitute a Committee, which shall inquire into the matter and submit a report about the incident(s). Let the relevant reports be submitted within 10 days. Re-list thereafter.
