Mr. Faisal Siddiqui, for Petitioners
Mr. Mukesh Kumar, Additional Advocate General, Sindh

Mr. Faisal Siddiqui, learned counsel appearing for the Petitioner has invited our attention to various orders passed by this Court directing the Provincial Government to arrange necessary security measures to protect children of the various schools from any untoward incident and to deploy security. He says that till date none of the order has complied with.

Learned Additional Advocate General says that he needs time to respond and to place on record the measures taken by the Provincial Government in that pursuit.

Notwithstanding, we direct that a survey should be conducted in all the schools and by pinpointing which of the schools are more vulnerable and security arrangements / deployment of police made by the schools as well as provided by the Provincial Government and the steps, which have been taken by the Provincial Government to ensure such security arrangements and lastly to see as to whether burden of such additional security has been passed on to the children. A comprehensive report covering all these issues be filed within four weeks.
